Fr. Bryan was chosen as the 2020 recipient for building a more just and peaceful world through his powerful work for racial justice and inclusion, and his witness and call for justice and inclusion of LGBTQ+ people. For more than four decades, he has addressed these twin bases of discrimination in his writing, speaking and actions. His reputation as a theologian and advocate for a truly inclusive Church is undisputed and has prompted some to call him a modern prophet.

This year's intense focus on justice in America has made Fr. Bryan into a recognized voice and face of the call for racial and LGBTQ+ justice and inclusion in the whole of society.

Join us in extending a warm Paulist Center welcome to Fr. Bryan on November 13th!
Reception and book signing to follow the liturgy.

All are welcome!

THE CHAIRS ARE BACK!

We are making strides to embrace the new normal in the Chapel, beginning with adding the chairs for additional seating. The chairs are movable and stackable. We designed the space to be flexible for various reasons.

Among them, if you need to have chairs moved to accommodate a stroller, wheelchair, or walker, if you need to have a chair moved for any reason, please ask one of the greeters or other members of the community to help out.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

The month of November is traditionally a time when Christians remember those who have died.

We invite you to inscribe the names of your loved ones who have passed between November 1, 2020 and November 1, 2021, in our Book of Remembrance – located in front of the icon of Mary in the Chapel.

You may also submit names of your loved ones who have passed this past year by filling out this form. The names will then be inscribed in our Book of Remembrance.

As we approach the end of another liturgical year, we pause to contemplate our passing from this life into a new life in God's heavenly reality. We lift up for those who have gone before us and with hope and trust, celebrate their new life surrounded by the saints in glory.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O God, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

JOIN OUR IMMIGRATION ADVOCACY GROUP IN SUPPORTING AFGHAN REFUGEES

A fghan refugees are arriving in Greater Boston. The Paulist Center, St. Cecilia parish, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston, St. Ignatius parish, and Catholic Charities of Boston have joined forces to sponsor an Afghan refugee family.

We need many volunteers to help with an array of tasks, such as:

- Welcoming family at airport; transporting to housing
- Locating and securing long-term housing
- Transporting/accompanying to medical visits, government offices, other locations; on-call for transporting
- Arranging schooling for children; advocating for them
- Assisting with establishing bank accounts, paying bills, budgeting, etc.
- Arranging and managing health insurance
- Seeking out and arranging for services including learning English, various public benefits, housing, etc.
- Assisting in shopping
- Obtaining household and personal items
- Raising funds for the families served
- Maintaining liaison with our partners
- Coordinating volunteers

HOUSING - THE BIGGEST CHALLENGE FOR AFGHAN FAMILIES

Housing is one of the most immediate needs and so we're asking any parishioners who own rental property, work in real estate, or know someone willing to rent to a refugee family at a reduced rent for their help. Although we don't yet know what size family might be referred to us for resettlement and support, we have been told to look for units with two to four bedrooms.

We expect that the families will receive some benefits but we do not know if they will receive any housing subsidies.

Can you find 2-3 hours per week to help? There's a refugee family that needs you. To learn more contact Paulist Center member Ed Marakovitz, 617-306-9726, edmarakovitz@yahoo.com or susan@paulistcenter.org.

WAYS OF GIVING

Our “Community Gift” is the Paulist Center’s tradition of giving away 5% of our weekend offerings, averaged out over the year, to a group outside of ourselves. We are so very grateful for your support during this time of uncertainty and financial challenge.

The weekend of November 13th and 14th we award the Isaac Hecker Award for Social Justice, and we designate the Community Gift to the winner’s ministry. This year, we are delighted to give the Award to Fr. Bryan Massingale! Fr. Bryan is receiving the award for his justice work in both LGBTQ and Racial Justice issues.

The weekend of November 20th and 21st we designate our gift to the United Negro College Fund (UNCF) Boston. UNCF Boston is here to help send students to college and turn his or her life around. Located in the South End, UNCF Boston is charged with raising funds to support UNCF’s mission of getting highly motivated deserving students to and through college at UNCF-member institutions and more than 1,100 colleges and universities across the country.

Two ways to give to the Paulist Center:

1. To make a one-time or recurring donation to the Center using your bank account or credit card, click on this link:

<https://tinyurl.com/DonatePaulistCenter>

2. Giving by text: Text a whole dollar donation amount to 844-899-7511; this will be designated as your “Weekend Offering.”
